THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, NOV. 7, 1865. NO. 304.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

North Carolina Items.

—Geo. Howard, of Tarboro', declines being a candidate from the Edgecombe district.

—There are four candidates for Congress in the sixth District, N. C., to wit :—Hon. Nathaniel Boyden, Col. Samuel Walkup, Dr. William Sloan and Dr. J. G. Ramsey.

—The Wilmington Herald of Friday says:

One week ago it would have been difficult to find a single prominent man in this community who was willing to acknowledge that he would vote for Holden. Now we hear so many expressing their determination to vote the "national union and Andrew Johnson" ticket that we begin to believe that New Hanover county should vote for Holden he will not lose a single county for the state. It is now a foregone conclusion that he will be triumphantly elected; but that is not enough. If it be conceded, as it seems to be, that his election will be an acceptable expression of confidence in the national administration, let us make that expression as nearly unanimous as possible. Twenty thousand majority will not be enough. Let the majority be so overwhelming that the opposition may themselves be led to see and acknowledge their own littleness and make haste to plant themselves on unconditionally loyal grounds.

—I. C. Fuller, of Cumberland, Hon. Thos S. Ashe and Mr. Alex. Little, of Anson, and Mr. N. McLean, of Robeson, are announced as condidates for Congress in the Third district.

—Speaking of the irregularity of the mails, the Hillsborough Recorder remarks:

There is scarcely a day in which many packages of papers and letters are not brought here which ought to have gone farther up or down the road.—On Thursday last, especially, a large portion of the mail was of this kind, embracing packages for all portions of the State. Whether these irregularities are occasioned by ignorance or carelessness we cannot say; perhaps a little of both.

—The number of bales of Cotton shipped from Charlotte over the N. C. R. R., during the month of October, amounts to 4,131 bales.

—Mr. W. L. Smith declines being a candidate for the House of Commons from New Hanover County.

—C. C. Clark and R. F. Lehman, of Craven, and Jno. Robinson, of Wayne, are the candidates for Congress in the Second district. Mr. Clark supports Mr. Worth, and the other two gentlemen Mr. Holden, for Governor.

Randolph Court of Oyer and Terminer.

This Court began its sittings on the third Monday of October, and lasted for two weeks, his Honor Judge Fowle presiding. Gen. J. M. Leach acted as Solicitor, and B. B. Bulla as Clerk. Judge Fowle charged the Grand Jury that they would take cognizance only of offenses committed since the 29th day of May, when the Provisional Government went into operation. We learn there were sixty-three cases on the docket. Seventy defendants either submitted or were convicted, a large number were not taken, and some were acquitted. The case of the State vs. Henson and seven others excited considerable interest. The State was represented by Gen. Leach. Hon. Jas. R. McLean, and M. S. Robins, Esq., and the defence was conducted by Hon. J. A. Gilmer, Gen. W. L. Scott, and J. R. Bulla, Esq. Five were on trial; two were acquitted and three convicted. This is what is called the Swafford case. Swafford had been badly beaten at Franklinsville on the day of the last election. The parties convicted were imprisoned for sixty days.

The case which excited the most interest was the State vs. Josiah Frazier and twenty-two other persons for an assault and battery upon Alfred Smith, Esq., at the sale of the property of Isaac H. Faust, dec'd. The State was represented by Gen. Leach, Mr. Gilmer, and Gen. Scott; and the defence by Mr. McLean, Mr. Robins, and Mr. Bulla. Eleven defendants were on trial. The court-room was crowded most of the day, several ladies being present, listening with great interest to the management and argument of the case. Two defendants submitted; a nolle prosequi was entered as to one, and eight were convicted. The ringleaders were imprisoned and the others heavily fined.

We trust that the holding of this court there may have the effect, not only in Randolph county, but elsewhere, of restoring law and order.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Demonstations of Workingmen—The Eight Hour System.—The workingmen of Washington City held a mass meeting on Wednesday evening, and paraded the streets in large numbers—between twenty-five hundred and three thousand men of the various trades in the District participated, and made an excellent appearance. They carried torches and transparencies, with appropriate mottoes to illustrate the object of their combined movement—namely, eight hours for a legal day's work. The line was about a mile in length—perhaps the largest and most imposing civic procession ever witnessed in Washington. Some of the trades, such as carpenters, gas-fitters, boiler and steam-engine makers, blacksmiths, and painters, gave practical exhibitions of their respective vocations, while the printers worked off a short poem in advocacy of the eight-hour system.—A ship, full rigged, with men on board, was among the prominent objects of interest. Thousands of spectators lined the streets through which the procession passed. The workingmen halted before the City Hall, where addresses were delivered to the immense crowd in advocacy of the eight hour system.

The Workingmen's Convention of Baltimore also held a meeting on Wednesday evening. The several candidates for the Legislature, in answer to the queries propounded by the convention, expressed themselves in favor of such legislation as will make eight hours a legal day's work.

National Express Company.—For the past two days the President (General Joseph E. Johnston) and Directors of the National Express Company have been in constant session, perfecting their organization, and arranging plans for its practical operation. We learn that it was agreed, on yesterday, to appoint for each State a General Superintendent, who shall have the appointment of all subordinate officers, and the general management of the institution in the States over which they respectively have control.

Among the most prominent applicants for State Superintendencies we have heard of, are General P. T. Moore, for Virginia; General Elzey, for Maryland, and General Ransom, for North Carolina.

It is also reported that a formal consolidation of the National with Reid's Express Company, was effected yesterday, and that in a short while the title of the latter institution will be merged.

Every effort will be made to put the Company in working order throughout the country at as early a day as possible.

—On Tuesday next, the seventh of November, the first general election, under the new Constitution, for county officers, Sheriffs, County Commissioners, Surveyors, etc., will take place in Maryland. At the same time a member of Congress, five Judges, and six members of the General Assembly are to be voted for.

—General John B. Hood, late of the Confederate army, is to lead to the alter a charming daughter of Gen. Preston, of Kentucky. It is General Hood's present intention and hope to make Texas his home.

A Union Soldier to the Rescue.—A day or two since a Confederate soldier, recently released from a Northern prison, was returning home to the far off South, sick, emaciated and almost dead, when, in passing the Broadway Hotel, an individual who was sitting in a chair by the door, on Broadway, accosted him with something near the following language:

"So you got your rights, did you, you d—d cowardly Southern son a b—h."

The pale, battle scarred veteran turned slowly around, while a cold gleam of lightning lit up his dark eye, and said slowly, "I am no coward, and my poor old, gray-haired mother is a decent woman; and, sir, I have seen the day when you would not dare insult me thus; but I am now among strangers, sick and feeble, endeavoring to get home to my friends once more. The Government has kindly furnished me with transportation for that purpose, and I do not believe it or its soldiers would thus insult a sick man."

A Union soldier passing by happened to hear the whole affair, and at the conclusion of the poor fellow's words, turned to the scoundrel sitting by the door with, "You thus outrage the feelings of a man not able to defend himself against your cowardly assaults—you miserable dog—you sneaking puppy.—This man has fought me for four years, while you had not courage enough in your coward heart to shoulder arms on either side. No man would use such language toword an invalid, if he had ever been where bullets whistle. I honor him for his courage, but despise you for your infernal cowardice and meanness, and will teach you such a lesson as you will not soon forget." It was all the excited crowd, which, attracted by high words, had gathered around, could do to keep the noble fellow from roundly thrashing the miscreant. The Union soldier accompanied the sick man to the boat, as he said, "to see that no more insults should be given him." This heroic action deserves commendation and reward.

—Champ Ferguson's horse took the prize at the Kentucky fair.

—St. Paul's Church at Savannah was burnt on the 26th ultimo.

—Three men arrived in St. Louis last week from a voyage of two thousand seven hundred miles down the Missouri in a skiff.

—It is reported that Secretary McCulloch will recommend Congress to substitute a tax on sales for the income tax.

—Hon. William Harris, who died in Bellefonte, Pa., last week, was the first child of white parents born in that town.

—General Robert E. Lee is said to have a contract for the publication of his history of the war, with a publisher of New York.

—The Rev. Dr. Moriarty, of Philadelphia, delivered a lecture in Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening, in favor of the independence of Ireland.

—Asa Fitch, the well-known manufacturer and millionaire of Fitchville, Conn., died on Monday night of pneumonia, after a brief illness.

—Joshua Corprew, Sr., a native of Princess Anne county, Va., died in New Orleans on the 12th ultimo.

—General Hatch has been fully exonerated from the charges of maladministration while in command at Charleston.

—A dispatch from New Orleans says General Canby has rescinded Fullerton's order arresting vagrant negroes.

—Orders, it is said, will soon be issued for the immediate release of a large number of persons who were sentenced during the war to imprisonments in forts and penitentiaries.

—Rev. John C. McCabe, D. D., late of Richmod, has accepted the call of the vestry of St. Matthew's Parish, (including St. Luke's Church, Bladensburg, and St. Matthew's Church, Prince George county,) Maryland.

—Civil law has been completely restored in Arkansas. President Johnson has sent Governor Murphy, of that State, a dispatch, directing him to restore the State to its former relations to the Federal Government. Slavery is no longer recognized in the State, and the Confederate debt repudiated.

—The State Department at Washington has received official advices from the United States Consul at Nassau confirming the report that a serious insurrection had broken out in Jamaica, in which several persons were killed and many wounded. Troops were sent from Nassau to quell the revolt.

—We understand that there was a severe tornado at Liberty, Bedford, Va., on Tuesday evening. The steeple was blown off the Baptist Church, trees were torn up by the roots, the corn was prostrated and other damage done.

—The New Haven Register insists upon it that Gen. Banks, having been Stonewall Jackson's Commissary, cannot, if elected to Congress, take the oath that he has never, "directly or indirectly, given aid or comfort to the enemies of the Union."

—An employee in Belcher's saloon, Philadelphia, bled to death on Monday from cutting a wart off one of his feet. He tried in vain to stop the hemorrhage by tying a cord around his leg, and was found dead, lying on his face on the floor.

—Mr. Blair says of Secretary Seward's recent speech: The patronizing air Mr. S. assumes—the magnanimous way in which he treats your humble servant—his eulogies of the Cabinet—show that he has the Presidential maggot in his head, and will never get it out.

—The census returns of Massachusetts show an aggregate of two hundred and fifty-two thousand voters in the State, of whom Boston has thirty-three thousand eight hundred and ninety. The census gives one member of the legislature to every one thousand and fifty voters.

—The Baltimore American learns that the combination of working-men who have been agitating the eight hour system, are preparing for a National strike in March next; that during the month all the working men in all the cities of the Union are to cease labor in the interest of the eight hour system, only to resume it again when employers, perferring eight hours work to none at all, succomb to their demands.

—The recent Gulf storm resulted in great loss of life and property. Only one man of twenty-five souls was saved at Calcasieu Pass, and every house except one was carried away. The water rose twenty feet above the surface of the ground, and all the houses were swept away at Sabinetown, and sixty-one persons were drowned. One citizen of Grand Cainier lost six hundred head of cattle. Generally everything animate and inanimate was swept away. Texas also suffered immense loss throughout the country lying between Sabine Pass and Brazos.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

Public Speaking.—The Hon. Kenneth Rayner will address the citizens of Raleigh, at the court-house, in this city, this evening at 7 o'clock.

The other candidates are expected to be present.

The people are requested to turn out and hear the discussion.

The Cholera.—Whether true or false, our telegrams from New York, published yesterday, reported that a steamer had appeared at quarantine there with cholera aboard. But should future accounts deny the accuracy of those accounts, even then, if the epidemic, which has certainly reached England and France, follow the course of those which have preceded it, we must expect it to reach this continent before many months elapse. We have it on good authority that about the year 1810 it commenced in the East and gradually approached Europe through China and Asiatic Russia, occupying more than twelve years in this part of its course. In less than two years more it invaded France and England, where it prevailed in 1832. From Great Britain its transmission to this country was easy and prompt. First appearing at Quebec, it spread from that city in all directions. After raging in different portions of the United States for nearly five years, it seemed to die out in 1837. An interval of nearly eleven years took place. Again, in 1844, it revived in Asia, and commencing its westward march, pervaded Russia in 1847, making, in this epidemic, the journey which required twelve years in the first, in less than three. It prevailed in Europe in 1848, and in the November of that year reached New York and New Orleans simultaneously.

The present epidemic commenced in the early part of the present year in the East, and has thus soon assuredly reached England and France—two hundred deaths a day being reported in Paris. Its advance towards our country this time has occupied less than half the time heretofore consumed in the tour. This increased rapidity, together with its reported appearance in Brooklyn and at New York quarantine, should alarm Raleigh sufficiently to stimulate the most thorough system of voluntary police on the part of our people. We are not on a water course, but Wilmington and Newbern render its transmission very easy. Let us be wise in season.

N. C. Baptist State Convention.—This body has been in session at Forrestville, since 1st inst. The officers chosen were—

President—Rev. James McDaniel.
Vice Presidents—Revs. A. McDowell, T. J. Pitchford and G. W. Purefoy.
Recording Secretary—J. D. Hufham.
Assistant do C. E. Dunn.
Treasurer—J. S. Purefoy.
Auditor—W. T. Walters.
Finance Committee—J. H. Bell, J. M. Brewer and J. W. Fort.

The committee to prepare an address to churches of the State are Revs. J. B. Hardwick, J. D. Hufham, W. M. Young, N. B. Cobb, and Messrs. P. A. Dunn and N. B. Cobb.

From a report of board of missions it appears they have only $55 in money now available.

After the reception of several other reports an adjournment was had to next day.

Progressing.—The most unexampled success, we are told, has attended the efforts of the white members of the Baptist church in this city, in organizing a sabbath school for freed people. The class referred to, of all sexes and ages, attend in great numbers, and the only trouble now is a deficiency of teachers. All the denominations in our State, speaking through official channels, have endorsed such policy and we hope our young men and ladies will take hold of the work in earnest. It is not a degrading task.

Heavy Frost.—Those who were early on the wing, yesterday morning, had the satisfaction of seeing one of those heavy frosts which are ordinarily in this section the product of mid-winter. If this was the latitude in which yellow-jack figured, such an appearance would have produced merry-making in every household in the city. As it was, no one seemed to regard it as a blessing; on the contrary, advanced price of wood, hardships of winter, &c., were the points it raised.

Change of Schedule.—It will be seen from the schedule elsewhere that there has been considerable change in the running of the Raleigh and Gaston trains. Commencing with yesterday morning, the hour of leaving Raleigh for Gaston has been established at 4.30 a. m., arriving here at 8.15 p. m. The arrangement of the time-table on the line of the North Carolina road is such as to form connection here, thus giving travellers a route through to Washington city without stoppage.

Withdrawn.—We learn officially that Hon. A. H. Arrington, of Nash, has withdrawn his name as one of the candidates for Congress in this district. This leaves the field to Russ, Edwards and Turner.

Col. Russ is our choice, but we are not therefore unmindful of the fact that Mr. Arrington is a man of fine practical sense, popular, and we hope will ever prove himself a worthy son of the Old North State.

Strange Fancy.—In conversation with a gentleman, yesterday, upon superstition and premonition, he stated that there is a gentleman of much respectability, residing in the southern part of Raleigh, who had a dream fifteen years since that if he came up town he would die. He yielded full faith to the vagary of the brain, has never ventured to violate the supposed forewarning, and as he therefore fails to register his property, on Wilmington street, at a proper moment, pays double taxes. These facts are well authenticated.

Gone to Jail.—Scott Tucker, Bill Boylan and Oscar Smith, three of the negroes who participated in the disturbance at the freedman's fair, Saturday night, have had a preliminary examination and been sent to jail. It is said their cases will go to a military court. The other parties have not been definitely disposed of.

A Driving Business.—The matrimonial market has an upward tendency and at its close yesterday was bouyant. The clerk of the court is now issuing marriage licenses at the rate of four per day for the county. The young folks are determined to set up for themselves.

Brought Back.—Mr. Marcom, charged with killing a negro in Chatham county two months ago and sentenced by a military commission to hard labor for one year in Fort Pulaski, was brought back to the city yesterday from Wilmington. No one appears to doubt that the President will yield to the recommendation of Gov. Holden and the citizens, and grant him full pardon.

The present Jewish month, Heshven or Marheshven, has three fasts, yesterday, next Thursday and Monday. On these three days are read the prayer of supplication for forgiveness. Marheshven has no holiday in the month. The devout German Jews observe the days mentioned with great circumspection.

Petition for Pardon.—A petition for the pardon of Jefferson Davis is circulating here for the signature of ladies. It was drawn by one of the most gifted of North Carolina's daughters, is eloquent in terms, and has been already numerously signed.

An effort of like character is being made in behalf of Ex-Gov. Vance.

More Voters.—The private secretary of Governor Holden announces that the following persons additional to those already announced will be entitled to vote next Thursday:

Carteret—A M Haskitt, Robert S. Walker, J P Haskitt.

Mecklenburg—Joseph S. Wilson.

Try It.—If any of our citizens wish to enjoy a dozen oysters raw, scalloped, fried, stewed, roasted or broiled, with other good things to match, they have but to call on C. L. Johnson, restaurant at the corner of Market and Wilmington streets. He has them gotten up in style.

The New Bridge.—The new bridge over the ravine just in front of the gas-works, a very substantial affair, was completed yesterday. Thus, by proper energy, an important thoroughfare has been opened to pedestrians and vehicles.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TUESDAY, OCT. 7, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever.—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

The Position of North Carolina.

The late Postmaster General of the Southern Confederacy, Hon. James H. Reagan, in a long letter to the people of Texas, holds this language:

"The State occupies the position of a conquered nation. State government and State sovereignty are in abeyance, and will be so held until you adopt a government and policy acceptable to the conquerors. A refusal to accede to these conditions would only result in a prolongation of the time during which you will be deprived of a civil government of your own choice, and continue subject to military rule."

This is truth well stated and applies quite as forcibly to North Carolina as Texas. It was a noble beginning when the late Convention of our State repudiated the liabilities contracted in the conduct of the war; but the chain of events which are necessary to complete the confidence of the North in our thorough reliability will only be complete when Mr. Holden has been made Governor; men capable of taking the test oath chosen for Congress; the Legislature convened; and the constitutional amendment proposed by Congress adopted.

So far as our information extends, we suppose no man in the State will deny the necessity of doing all we have specified, except, perhaps, electing Governor HOLDEN. It is notorious, however, that the supporters of Mr. WORTH are sustaining for congressional honors men who have asked but failed in receiving the pardon of the government at Washington. We submit that such a fact is of itself sufficient to inspire distrust of the species of patriotism which induced their chief and themselves to enter the contest. Disinterested minds abroad, if not at home, will be certain to conclude that self and not the good of the State originated opposition to the present incumbent; that the old penchant for "loaves and fishes" has been the main-spring of the party machinery the "latter-day saints" have put in motion; and that rather than remain on the probation calendar for a single year, they are ready to jeopard the best interests of the State.

If the North shall so judge the Worth party, the return of North Carolina to the Union—her resumption of independent functions—release from military supervision—will all be lost. The Boston Post, with its strong sympathies for the South, avows that Gov. Holden's selection will be most advantageous to the State in its operative influence upon the Northern mind and public men. The Washington Chronicle expresses similar views—and when we remember the immense power wielded by those journals, it is of consequence to heed their views. They represent elements in their section of the Union upon which we are totally dependent for acceptance or rejection. Indeed, the Chronicle's party have power in Congress to keep us out or receive us. If they approve the men chosen at Thursday's election, it is patent there will be no difficulty in the way of their admission as representatives, unless, indeed, after so much of good sense, the consummation of folly should be reached in the choice of JONATHAN WORTH. He may be and doubtless is an estimable citizen, but Holden is his equal in such respect, with the added quality of being approved by the very men who wield the votes which are to make or unmake us for a long period—at least, till we learn that discretion is the better part of valor.

The Right Spirit—Just Views.

We ask of the reader an unbiased and impartial consideration of the views presented on the gubernatorial question in the article below, which we transfer to our columns from the Salisbury Banner. No one will presume to question the devotion of the editor who penned it to Southern honor and interests. With faith in the doctrine of secession, he served in the army of the South; but now that slavery and the theory of State independency have been forever destroyed, he has both the gallantry and sense to labor singly for North Carolina in the Union:

We cannot understand why there should be] opposition to the election of Gov. Holden. Our former position—our political antecedents both before and during the continuance of the war, are too well defined and unmistakable to render a re-statement necessary.

We opposed the election of Gov. Holden in 1864, because we did not regard him as true to the Confederacy. Change of circumstances cannot change principles, but may and often should modify our practical action. A man also might have been very unobjectionable during the war—might, for the very reasons on which our support was based, be very objectionable now in our altered circumstances, and so a man who was objectionable during the war by reason of his secret loyalty to the United States may very properly command our support now, when our future welfare so much depends upon the light in which our officers are viewed at Washington. They regard the election of a man, not regarded by them as loyal, as evidence of a disloyal sentiment on the part of the electors.

It is idle to discuss the philosophy of the matter—we take it as we find it—a plain, naked, practical fact.

Gov. Holden has the confidence and respect of the President. He appointed him Provisional Governor because he well knew his loyalty—we have no reason to know or believe that that confidence has been shaken or that respect diminished. Due respect has been paid to his recommendations and suggestions and the open sesame to the President's good graces has been and continues to be Gov. Holden's signa-mana. Both the President and the Governor rose from the people—are self made men—the architects of their own characters and their own fortunes. Gov. Holden has acted with kindness, charity and forbearance towards those who so bitterly denounced him in the hey-day of the Confederacy.

We did not believe that he had a heart—but we now freely admit our error and frankly confess that he has a well of charity and benevolence that no draught can exhaust.

We have no reason to suppose that President Johnson's confidence has abated one jot or tittle. What evidence have we that he reposes the like confidence in Mr. Jonathan Worth? Have we any? Have we not evidence that Mr. Worth's views and the President's are entirely opposed on at least a matter of very great importance—the non-assumption of the State war debt. Mr. Worth's opinions are well known and the President's have been expressed to the Convention in terms unmistakable. What is the use of running Mr. Worth? Why should Gov. Holden be thrust aside or if set aside why should it be for Mr. J. Worth? Who objects to Gov. Holden? Who objects to what Gov. Holden has done and is doing to promote rehatation. It is a stab in the dark—and penetrates further than the Governor. What good purpose can be subserved by electing Mr. Worth? If not more acceptable—is he more able? Who is at the bottom of this worse than useless move? Surely not our former political associates—they are the very best of citizens and will not engage in or lend themselves, we trust, to any plots or schemes—founded on personal feelings upon any convictions except the public good. We hope the work of reconstruction began so auspiciously will not be stopped half-way by the election of a man whose position is not cordially with the Administration at this time.

The National Debt.

We have received from the Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury, a copy of the official "statement of the public debt of the United States" on the 31st October. The following is a recapitulation:

Debt bearing interest in coin,	$1,161,137,691 80
Debt bearing interest in lawful money,	1,191,819,784 46
Debt on which interest has ceased,	1,378,920 09
Debt bearing no interest,	386,523,359 51
Total,	$2,740,854,758 86

The interest on the debt bearing interest in coin is $67,670,840; on the remainder, $71,267,788—total interest, $138,938,078.

The chief items compare as follows with the statement of September 30:

SUM TOTAL.

Public debt, October 31,	$2,740,854,758 86
Public debt, September 30,	2,744,947,726 17
A decrease of	$4,092,967 31

INTEREST.

October 31	$138,938,078 59
September 30	137,529,216 25
An increase of	$1,408,862 34

LEGAL TENDER IN CIRCULATION.

September 30	$678,126,940 00
October 31	633,709,611 00
A decrease of	$45,417,329 00

COIN IN TREASURY.

September 30	$32,740,787 73
October 31	34,555,987 15
An increase of	$1,815,198 42

CURRENCY IN TREASURY.

September 30	$56,286,441 13
October 31	33,800,591 54
A decrease of	$22,485,849 59

The new Five-twenty bonds issued in exchange for legal tenders withdrawn from circulation amount to $44,479,100.

Thus it appears that all the current expenses of the Government have been paid during the month, the coin on hand increased, forty-four millions of legal-tender notes retired from circulation, and the public debt diminished over four millions. This is an exhibit which will prove as acceptable to the country as it is highly creditable to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mitchell's Parting Interview with Mr. Davis.

Before wholly dismissing Mitchell, I will briefly mention his parting interview yesterday with Mr. Davis, and in fact the story is only a brief one. I only learned of the interview to-day from a gentleman who received the facts from Mr. Mitchell himself. On the contrary, when I wrote my letter of yesterday, I was given to understand most positively that he was not allowed before leaving the fort to see either Mr. Davis or Mr. Clay.

"I have come to bid you goodby," said Mr. Mitchell to Mr. Davis, extending his hand to the latter, who grasped it warmly and firmly held it in his during the brief interview between them.

"The pleasing news of your restoration to liberty has already been told me," replied Mr. Davis, "and I congratulate you, now that you are a free citizen of the world again."

"I hope I shall soon have the pleasure of similarly congratulating you," responded Mr. Mitchell.

"I bide my time cheerfully and hopefully," spoke up Mr. Davis.

"Have you any commands for me?" asked Mr. Mitchell: "any service that I can do for you."

"I only ask to continue you on my list of friends who are doing all they can for me."

"Be assured of my unfailing co-operation in your behalf."

"I ask nothing more."

"Shall I write your wife anything?" Mr. Mitchell further asked.

"It might be a pleasure to her, although you know I am allowed pretty extended freedom now in writing her. Yes, yes, write her."

"Goodby."

"Goodby."

The two unclasped hands and parted.

Mr. Mitchell was minute to my informant, undertaking to give the exact conversation, which in turn I have given as minutely as received from the lips of the latter.—[Cor. N. Y. Herald.

ANDREW JOHNSON AND GEN. MCCLELLAND.—The statements of the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer to the effect that Gen. McClelland is returning from Europe at the request of President Johnson, and that he is likely to be called into the Cabinet on its reorganization, will attract attention. Ex-Postmaster General Blair declares that President Lincoln and Gen. Grant always had confidence in McClellan.—[Wheeling Register.

PEARLS AND RUBIES.—White teeth cropping from out of ridges of ruby, a breath spicy as the airs from Araby the Blest. Who can resist such fascinations? To realize them, to perpetuate them, to make the mouth a casket of pearls and rubies, and every sigh a gush of fragrance, all you have to do, fair ladies, is to use that matchless vegetable preparation, Fragrant Sozodont.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF WAKE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the House of Legislature in the House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my vote on all occasions will be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

nov2-tde* H. O. PARKER.

ANDREW JOHNSON, HOLDEN UNION TICKET. Dr. WM. SLOAN, of Gaston County, will be supported most heartily for the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, by all loyal men looking to early restoration and general harmony.

Dr. Sloan's record will furnish no data for his rejection at the hands of the Federal Congress. This, the Charlotte District, is now the 6th.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.

He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people. I shall represent your sentiments on all constitutional measures, if they are known to me.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Moss, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries.—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

In this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success" WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Government Forbidding Arms to Negroes

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.—Gen. Canby has received orders to muster out all the negro troops in his department which he can spare. Several regiments will be disbanded immediately and all will be prohibited from purchasing arms or other weapons.

The Jamaica Insurrection.

NEW YORK, Nov 6.—Havana advices state that the negro rebellion was progressing in Jamaica.—At Kingston great excitement prevailed, business was suspended, and the entire population in a state of defence.

TERRIBLE DISTRESS AT GIBRALTER.—Our readers are already aware of the existence of cholera at Gibralter, and the extent to which its ravages have gone, but few are acquainted with the distress which has resulted indirectly from it. On the latter point a writer in the London Times says: "The Spanish authorities have established a cordon across the slip of semi-desert which separates Gibralter from the interior. No one is allowed to pass either from or to the rock. Not only so, but for the same reason—the prevalence of cholera—no ships from Gibraltar are allowed to enter any Spanish port. Thus, on all hands, the rock people are cut off from their kind.—The inhabitants of Gibraltar mainly depend upon their trade with Algesiras and other ports. And now that this is stopped, and all means of communication cut off, they are, to the number of two thousand, almost literally starving. This is a very shocking revelation. No one can realize, but every one can form some conception of the horrors of such a situation—imprisonment on a rock with disease and want to do their very worst."

MORMONISM IN CONNECTICUT.—The Springfield Republican says:

"In a town near Norwhich there is a family where, for some time, a woman and her sister, have shared the maternal duties of the house-hold, rather than have a 'fall in the family.' The product of the two sisters is twenty-one children. The selectmen once threatened to arrest the vigorous patriarch and have him dealt with; he warned them that if they did his whole family, consisting then of fourteen children, would be thrown upon the town for support. This was such a serious view of the case to the town authorities that they left the family to work out its own salvation."

Ex-President Frank Pierce has purchased a snug little place of 40 acres, called the Brown Farm, in Northampton, N. H., north side of Little Bore's Head, and about a mile south of the Atlantic House, at Rye.

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
